DAYS INN CELEBRATES GRAND OPENING OF FOURTH EDMONTON HOTEL

EDMONTON, AB, June 13, 2008 – Days Inn - Edmonton South celebrated its grand opening last evening with a reception and ribbon cutting ceremony. Located at 10333 University Avenue near trendy Whyte Avenue, the 100% smoke-free new construction hotel features 85 spacious guest rooms, a 24-hour business centre, fitness facilities, free Daybreak Café breakfast and complimentary high-speed Internet access.

“Yesterday’s official grand opening signifies our commitment to providing guests with exceptional service and excellent value,” said Don Rosten, Managing Director, Dimension 3 Hospitality. “This is a rewarding day for us and we look forward to building long standing relationships with guests and members of our community.”

The hotel celebrated its grand opening with a reception that included facility tours, a ribbon cutting ceremony, guest speakers and music by local jazz musicians. Special guests in attendance included Irwin Prince, President & COO, Days Inns - Canada and Mr. Gurcharan Dhaliwal, Co-Owner, Days Inn - Edmonton South.

“We are delighted to commemorate the grand opening and officially welcome Days Inn - Edmonton South to the Days Inn family, further expanding our portfolio of hotels across Western Canada,” said Irwin Prince, President & COO, Days Inns - Canada. “We’re especially pleased that this is the fifth Days Inn hotel exclusively managed by Dimension 3 Hospitality. This new property is a wonderful lodging choice for guests seeking top-quality accommodations coupled with great service.”

The four-storey hotel is conveniently located 25 minutes from Edmonton International Airport. Each room is fully equipped with fridge, microwave, 27” cable TV, work desk, coffee maker, hairdryer, iron and ironing board. Guests will appreciate free parking, 24-hour front desk service and on-site guest laundry facilities.
